

Constitution and Bylaws of the Ohio Conference United Church of Christ Preamble

1. Whereas, the United Church of Christ, formed June 25, 1957, by the union of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and The General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches of the United States in order to express more fully the oneness in Christ of the churches composing it, to make more effective their common witness in Christ, and to serve God's Realm in the world, has adopted a constitution on July 4, 1961; and

2. Whereas, the United Church of Christ acknowledges as its sole head, Jesus Christ, the Son of God and the Savior of humankind; acknowledges as one in Christ all who share in this confession; looks to the Word of God in the Scriptures, and to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, to prosper its creative and redemptive work in the world; claims as its own the faith of the historic Church expressed in the ancient creeds and reclaimed in the basic insights of the Protestant Reformers; affirms the responsibility of the Church in each generation to make this faith its own in reality of worship, in honesty of thought and expression, and in purity of heart before God; and in accordance with the teaching of our Lord and the practice prevailing among evangelical Christians, recognizes two sacraments, Baptism and the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion; and

3. Whereas, the provisions herein define and regulate the Ohio Conference of the United Church of Christ and describe the free and voluntary relationships which local churches, Associations, and ministers sustain within the Ohio Conference and with each other. The pattern of relationships and procedures so described is recommended to local churches, Associations and ministers, to enable them more effectively to accomplish their tasks and the work of the United Church of Christ; and

4. Whereas, the Ohio Conference of Congregational Christian Churches and the four Ohio Synods of the Evangelical and Reformed Church -- the Northeast Ohio Synod, Northwest Ohio Synod, Southeast Ohio Synod, and Southwest Ohio Synod, hereinafter referred to as the four Ohio Synods of the Evangelical and Reformed Church -- have consolidated to form the Ohio Conference of the United Church of Christ without a break in their respective historical continuities and traditions;

5. Now, therefore, the following provisions are adopted as the Constitution and Bylaws of the Ohio Conference of the United Church of Christ.

Article I. Continuation of Existing Conferences and Synods

6. The Ohio Conference of the United Church of Christ unites without break in their respective historical continuities and traditions, and consolidates the ecclesiastical and legal identities of the Ohio Conference of Congregational Christian Churches and the four Ohio Synods of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, to conduct their work and to have all of their powers, duties, and obligations.

Article II. Name

7. The name of this Conference shall be the Ohio Conference of the United Church of Christ, hereinafter referred to as the Ohio Conference.

Article III. Purpose

8. The purpose of the Ohio Conference shall be to strengthen the domestic and global life of the local churches and Associations within its boundaries, to witness in their behalf, and to relate them to the life and work of the United Church of Christ, its Covenanted Ministries, Affiliated and Associated Ministries, and its partner churches and other associates throughout the world.

9. The Ohio Conference may in its corporate name acquire by purchase, devise, bequest or otherwise and own, hold, invest, reinvest or dispose of property both real and personal for such religious, educational, philanthropic and other related work as the Ohio Conference may undertake and purchase, own, receive, hold, manage, care for, and transfer, rent, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber, sell, assign, transfer and convey such property for the general purposes of the Ohio Conference, receive and hold in trust both real and personal property for churches, boards, institutions and instrumentalities of the United Church of Christ and invest or reinvest the same, and make any contracts for promoting the objects and purposes of the Ohio Conference as stated in this Article III. Any right or interest in respect to past or future devise, bequest, conditional gift, trust or property, or fund restricted to particular uses, when vested in or claimed by such consolidated corporation as a result of the consolidation, shall belong to it as a continuation without interruption of the existence and identity of the constituent organization originally named as takers or beneficiaries.

10. In general, the Ohio Conference may exercise any and every power which a nonprofit corporation organized under Chapter 1702 of the Nonprofit Corporation Law of the State of Ohio, as the same may be amended, can be authorized to exercise.

11. The Ohio Conference shall maintain relations with other Christian communions and ecumenical bodies within its boundaries to the end that mutual affirmation, understanding and cooperation may be advanced.

12. The Ohio Conference may exercise the functions of an Association of the United Church of Christ as described in the Constitution and Bylaws of the United Church of Christ as adopted July 4, 1961 and as subsequently amended, when such functions are delegated to it by an Association or where no such Association exists.

13. The Ohio Conference shall seek to interpret and advance the work of the General Synod in its own operation and in and through its local churches, Associations, and common missions by all possible means consistent with the spirit of Christ.

Article IV. Membership

14. The geographical area of the Ohio Conference shall be that area which the Ohio Conference of Congregational Christian Churches and the four Ohio Synods of the Evangelical and Reformed Church were serving at the time the formation of the Ohio Conference becomes effective, or that area as it may be modified with the approval of the General Synod of the United Church of Christ.

15. The Ohio Conference is composed of all local churches holding standing in an Association of the Ohio Conference, and all ministers holding standing in an Association of the Ohio Conference.

16. The control of the Ohio Conference shall reside in its voting members and may be exercised directly at any Annual Gathering or other special meeting of the Ohio Conference or in the interim through and by the Ohio Conference Board of Directors.

Article V. Officers and Board of Directors

17. Officers of the Ohio Conference shall be the Conference Minister, the Moderator, the Vice Moderator, the Secretary and the Treasurer. The Conference Minister shall serve as the chief executive officer of the Ohio Conference. In the event of the absence or disability of the Conference Minister, the Moderator, or any other officer of the Ohio Conference, the Board of Directors shall designate another person to fulfill the duties of the office until that officer has returned or until the next Annual Gathering or special meeting of the Ohio Conference. The Conference Minister, Moderator, Vice Moderator, Secretary, and Treasurer shall have the powers and duties which usually pertain to such offices. Without in any way limiting their other and general powers, the Moderator and the Secretary are authorized to sign all deeds, mortgages, contracts, and such other written instruments as shall become necessary or appropriate in protecting and carrying on the business and property interests of the Ohio Conference.

18. The business and affairs of the Ohio Conference shall be managed when the Ohio Conference is not in session by the Board of Directors which shall have such powers and duties as are usual and customary to a Board of Directors or a Board of Trustees under the Nonprofit Corporation Law of the State of Ohio and as provided herein, and in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Ohio Conference. Except as otherwise provided in this article, all Directors shall have voice and vote. The Board of Directors shall be constituted as follows:

A. Board of Directors: Up to twenty-two members

1) Ten Association representatives, two nominated and elected by the Conference from each Association, except in the case of the combined Associations formerly known _____ as Eastern Ohio Association and Western Reserve Association, which shall have four _____ representatives. At least one representative from each Association _____ shall be a member of that Association Council/Official Board. Election or appointment shall be for two years with staggered terms;

2) The four elected officers of the Conference — Moderator, Vice Moderator, Secretary, Treasurer — and the immediate Past Moderator shall be members of the Board of Directors. Their terms shall begin at the conclusion of the Ohio Conference Annual Gathering following their election, and shall end at the conclusion of the Ohio Conference Annual Gathering following the election of their successors.

3) The Conference Minister of the Ohio Conference shall be a member of the Board of Directors with voice but not vote.

4) One Association Minister from each Association or the Association Minister's representative shall be members of the Board of Directors with voice but not vote.

5) One representative, elected by the Ohio Region, Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), with voice and vote.

B. The Ohio Conference officers shall be the officers of the Board of Directors.

19. The Conference Minister shall be elected by the Ohio Conference delegates at an Annual Gathering or special meeting. The Board of Directors shall appoint a Search Committee to secure a candidate for this office. The candidate shall be an ordained minister in good standing in an Association of the United Church of Christ. The name of one candidate shall be submitted to the Ohio Conference delegates who shall consider only one candidate at a time and shall vote by ballot for or against his/her election and the terms of his/her call. If the candidate is elected, the Ohio Conference shall tender a call. The call shall be for an indefinite term, and is subject to periodic review and termination in accordance with the provisions of the call.

20. The Moderator, Vice Moderator, Secretary, Treasurer, and delegates to the General Synod shall be elected by the Ohio Conference at an Annual Gathering. Candidates for these positions shall be members in good standing in a local church in the Ohio Conference. In case of a vacancy, an election to fill the unexpired term shall be held at the next ensuing Annual Gathering or special meeting. The term of office and the method of nominating such officers and delegates shall be specified in the Constitution and Bylaws.

21. The Board of Directors of the Ohio Conference shall be empowered to fill all vacancies which occur on the Board of Directors, the standing committees, or on the Division for Outdoor Ministries, or among the elected officers, until a successor is elected at the next Annual Gathering or special meeting.

22. The Moderator or Vice Moderator shall preside at meetings of the Ohio Conference and meetings of the Board of Directors.

23. The Moderator and the Vice Moderator shall be elected for a two year term, and shall not be eligible to succeed themselves. If the Moderator is an ordained minister, the Vice Moderator shall be a lay person. If the Moderator is a lay person, the Vice Moderator shall be an ordained minister. The Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected for three year terms. The term of an office shall begin at the conclusion of the annual gathering at which the election is held. The Conference Minister and Treasurer shall furnish a corporate security bond as required by the Board of Directors, the premium thereon to be paid by the Ohio Conference.

24. Except for the Secretary, the Treasurer, and the non-voting members, a director having served two full terms shall not be eligible for re-election for one year after the completion of his/her term of office.

25. The Board of Directors shall hold at least two meetings during each year. Special meetings may be called by the Moderator, or Vice Moderator acting on behalf of the Moderator, or upon petition of one-third of the members of the Board of Directors or request of ~~two three~~ Associations. 50% plus 1 Eight voting members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

26. The Board of Directors may hold meetings by teleconference or other electronic device following due notice to all members. A roll call must be taken to determine those in attendance and that a quorum is present. Usual procedures for a Board meeting must be followed.

27. An executive session shall be held at each meeting of the Board of Directors. At these executive sessions non-voting members shall not be present except by invitation.

Article VI. Annual Gathering and Special Meetings

28. The Ohio Conference shall hold one regular Annual Gathering at a time and place determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings may be called by the Board of Directors or on written request of three Associations of the Ohio Conference. Written notice of any meeting of the Ohio Conference shall be transmitted to the Associations, local churches, and ministers by the Ohio Conference Secretary at least 45 days before the meeting.

A quorum at any meeting of the Ohio Conference shall consist of voting members from not less than ten percent of the local churches, including at least one (1) voting delegate from each Association.

Article XI. The Staff

40. The Conference Minister shall serve as chief executive officer of the Ohio Conference and shall direct and supervise the work of the professional, managerial and support staff. The Board of Directors may employ professional staff for program and the Division for Outdoor Ministries as the Ohio Conference may authorize from time to time by action taken at a meeting thereof.

Article XII. Finance

41. The fiscal year for the Conference shall be January 1 to December 31.

42. The budget of the Ohio Conference for the following year shall be presented in detail to the Board of Directors and to the Associations through their councils for study and discussion; and to the Annual Gathering of this Conference for approval. The budget of the Ohio Conference shall be transmitted to the respective Associations at such time as to permit study and discussion by the Associations at their annual meetings prior to the Ohio Conference Annual Gathering at which the budget is to be approved.

43. The Ohio Conference shall be financed, primarily, from a portion of contributions for Our Church's Wider Mission contributed by the local churches. The procedure for establishing such portion to be retained is as follows:

- A. The Finance and Investment Committee consults with the Budget Committee of General Synod and reaches mutual agreement upon the percentage, or dollar amount, of contributions for Our Church's Wider Mission to be retained for the support of the ministries within the geographic area of the Ohio Conference.
- B. The Finance and Investment Committee of the Ohio Conference, in consultation with the Budget and Finance Committee of each Association in the Ohio Conference, reaches mutual agreement upon the percentage, or the dollar amount, of contributions for Our Church's Wider Mission to be retained by the Associations and to be allocated for the Ohio Conference and General Synod budgets.

44. The Ohio Conference shall receive monthly remittances for Our Church's Wider Mission from the Associations, shall keep complete and accurate records thereof and shall submit quarterly reports to the Associations of the dollar amounts retained for the Conference budget and those forwarded to the Treasurer of the United Church of Christ on the basis of agreed upon percentages or dollar amounts.

Article XIII. Nominations

45. There shall be a Nominations Committee of the Ohio Conference. The committee shall nominate those persons to be considered for election by the Ohio Conference Annual Gathering, except as otherwise provided in the Constitution and Bylaws.

- A. For all nominations, commissioned ministers are eligible for service only in the category of lay persons.
- B. For all nominations, licensed ministers are eligible for service only in the category of lay persons.
- C. For all nominations, the Ohio Conference Affirmative Action Plan shall guide the work of the Nominations Committee.

D. Membership: ~~Seven~~ ~~Eight~~ Members

One member from each Association, one to be elected every other year by that Association for a term of two years

Two at-large members, one to be elected at each Ohio Conference Annual Gathering for a term of two years. At least one shall be a member of the Board of Directors.

The Conference Minister shall serve, ex-officio without vote.

Article XIV. Delegates and Alternates to the General Synod

46. Ohio Conference delegates and alternates to the General Synod shall be chosen in the following manner:

- A. The number of General Synod delegates representing Ohio Conference is determined by a formula approved by the General Synod and applied to the Ohio Conference. The Moderator and the Vice Moderator of the Ohio Conference shall be two of the elected delegates to General Synod of the United Church of Christ.
- B. The remaining number of Conference delegates and alternates shall be allocated by the Nominations Committee to the Associations within the Ohio Conference on the basis of the number of persons who have membership in the local churches within the Association
- C. Nominations are to be distributed so as to be representative of authorized ministers, laymen, laywomen, youth, and racial and ethnic persons as nearly as possible in agreement with the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.
- D. The Associations shall, under their own procedures, nominate the persons to act as the Ohio Conference delegates and alternates.
- E. The Ohio Conference, at an Annual Gathering, shall elect as Conference delegates and alternates those persons nominated by the Associations.

- F. Delegates cease to represent the Ohio Conference if they move their church membership or ministerial standing outside the Ohio Conference. However, if delegates move their church membership or ministerial standing from one Association to another within the Ohio Conference, they shall continue to represent the Ohio Conference.

Article XV. Parliamentary Authority

47. All proceedings of the Ohio Conference and the Board of Directors, unless otherwise provided for, are governed by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised. In the event of the absence or disability of the Conference Minister, the Moderator, or any other officer of the Ohio Conference, the Board of Directors shall designate another person to fulfill the duties of the office until that officer has returned or until the next Annual Gathering or special meeting of the Ohio Conference.

Article XVI. Amendments

48. Amendments to this Constitution and Bylaws may be proposed by:

- A. The Board of Directors of the Ohio Conference; or
- B. Not less than five percent of the churches which are members of the Ohio Conference; or
- C. Any ~~of the five~~ Associations of the Ohio Conference; or
- D. The Ohio Conference in Annual Gathering.

49. Amendments proposed by the Ohio Conference in an Annual Gathering shall be voted upon at the next Ohio Conference meeting after due notice.

50. All amendments shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Ohio Conference at least ninety days prior to the Ohio Conference meeting at which they are to be acted upon. At least sixty days prior to such meeting the Secretary shall transmit such proposed amendments to the Associations, the local churches and all ordained, commissioned and licensed ministers for their consideration.

51. Adoption of an amendment(s) to this Constitution and Bylaws shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of those present and voting in an Ohio Conference meeting and shall take effect immediately upon adoption.

Article XVII. Indemnification

52. Indemnification of Directors and Officers. Except as otherwise provided by applicable state statutes, not the Directors, not any member, nor any officer of this Corporation shall be liable personally for any error or judgment or for any act of commission or omission in connection herewith except in the case of bad faith, willful misconduct or fraud, nor shall they be liable personally for any debt or obligation of the Corporation of any member thereof, and the Members shall jointly indemnify each other, the Directors, and the Officers against any liability, loss or damage, except in the case of bad faith, willful misconduct or fraud, attributable to their respective services hereunder.
